

HINERI

SETSU & SHINOBU ITO 2020

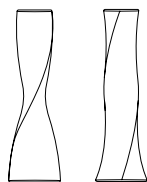

Vaso in marmo la cui forma sinuosa è generata dalla torsione di un cilindro attorno al proprio asse principale. È disponibile in due misure nelle varianti bianco Carrara e Nero Marquina. Le forme di Hineri e la scelta del marmo, materiale tanto resistente quanto delicato, rivelano la sapienza nel selezionare la porzione di pietra idonea a sopportare il processo di produzione. La presenza di operatori altamente qualificati in grado di padroneggiare tecniche e strumenti permette di ottenere la migliore resa del materiale.

Marble vase whose sinuous shape is created by the twisting of a cylinder around its main axis. It is available in two sizes in white Carrara and Nero Marquina marble.

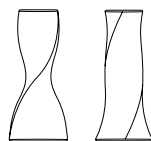

The shape of Hineri and the choice of marble, a material as resistant as it is delicate, reveal the great skill in selecting the portion of stone suitable for supporting the production process. The presence of highly qualified operators capable of mastering tools and techniques allows to obtain the best performance of the material.
